

Newsletter 03-10-22

Dear member,

Hopefully all is well as we are almost halfway into the first block of this academic year! October has arrived and the signature Dutch autumn weather has taken over from the last bit of summery warmth. The month of sweaters, Pumpkin Spice Lattes, blankets, tea and Halloween has started! With this new month, we have quite some news as well, and you'll read all about it in this newsletter, enjoy!

In this Newsletter you will find:

- Updates from the Board!
- University News
- Activities
- Vacancies
- Poem

Updates from the Board!

Committees

The deadline for the new committees has passed, and the committees have formed. You will get a chance to meet all the members on the upcoming GA! We're all very excited to see what activities will be organised this year, you too? Stay tuned and come attend the activities!

Groupchat

The idea for a groupchat for all Euphorion members has been around for a while, and now we decided to try it out! In this groupchat we will keep you up to date on all the planned activities, confidante hours, study sessions, tosti lunches and other important announcements. Besides that, you can now easily see who is a member as well! Feel free to respond to us, chat with other members, ask questions or dump suggestions! If you're not in the groupchat yet, you can find the link to join here: Euphorion Group Chat

Newsletter

As you may have noticed, we changed the way you receive the newsletters. Instead of the newsletter as a pdf attached to an email, we now send the newsletter as the mail itself. For this we use the programme Mailerlite. However, we noticed that the mail may end up in your spam or promotions box! So be sure to label our mails as not spam and be sure to spread the word!

Activities

Ever year, the board and the committees do their best to plan the funnest, most gezellige and well-organized activities for the members. This year, like all others, we hope on a great turn out with lots of members that join the activities. For that, we need you! See a fun activity? Don't be shy and join! You're never alone, and always in for some fun! You can ask friends to join, even non-members*! Get talking and you are always welcome to tell us what you liked or give some feedback/suggestions.

* Keep in mind that non-members might have to contribute (more) money to an activity than members might.

One Book One Campus

One Book One Campus is the reading event where everyone at the university is invited to read the acclaimed novel Girl, Woman, Other (2019) by Bernardine Evaristo. During the Diversity Month in October we organize all kinds of activities centered around this book, like Meet-and-Read sessions and a creative contest. At the end of the Diversity Month (October 31st), Evaristo will come to Utrecht to join our conversations! The aims of One Book One Campus are to stimulate conversations about diversity and inclusive education and to enhance the UU as a community.

Do you want to participate in One Book One Campus? Buy the book with a discount in the UU webshop for just €6,- and pick it up at one of the twelve pick up points in the UU. Curious what One Book One Campus will entail in October? Watch the video clip or find all the info at One Book One Campus

Vacansies

Sadly, I have not received any interesting vacancies for you!

However, if you are looking for jobs or internships, it may pay off to take a look at the 'Career Services' on the UU site. Career services. Especially under the tab 'Job Board' you can personalize your search. Good luck!

To Autumn, By John Keats

Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness,
 Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun;
 Conspiring with him how to load and bless
 With fruit the vines that round the thatch-eaves run;
 To bend with apples the moss'd cottage-trees,
 And fill all fruit with ripeness to the core;
 To swell the gourd, and plump the hazel shells
 With a sweet kernel; to set budding more,

And still more, later flowers for the bees,
Until they think warm days will never cease,
For summer has o'er-brimm'd their clammy cells.

Who hath not seen thee oft amid thy store?
Sometimes whoever seeks abroad may find
Thee sitting careless on a granary floor,
Thy hair soft-lifted by the winnowing wind;
Or on a half-reap'd furrow sound asleep,
Drows'd with the fume of poppies, while thy hook
Spares the next swath and all its twined flowers:
And sometimes like a gleaner thou dost keep
Steady thy laden head across a brook;
Or by a cyder-press, with patient look,
Thou watchest the last oozings hours by hours.

Where are the songs of spring? Ay, Where are they?
Think not of them, thou hast thy music too,—
While barred clouds bloom the soft-dying day,
And touch the stubble-plains with rosy hue;
Then in a wailful choir the small gnats mourn
Among the river shallows, borne aloft
Or sinking as the light wind lives or dies;
And full-grown lambs loud bleat from hilly bourn;
Hedge-crickets sing; and now with treble soft
The red-breast whistles from a garden-croft;
And gathering swallows twitter in the skies.
